

THE GATHERING AT GARST

Special Living History Event July 23, 2021
July 24 and 25, 2021
205 N. Broadway - Greenville, Ohio

The Gathering at Garst was created to remember the defining events and people who shaped our county's history. Our mission is to promote awareness and appreciation of those who made unique contributions to the culture of Darke County and to celebrate our local heritage in a family-oriented and educational atmosphere. Public admission to The Gathering at Garst is free. All celebration proceeds will benefit the Garst Museum.

This event brings together thousands of visitors from near and far to help celebrate our history. Annie Oakley, Lowell Thomas, and Zachary Lansdowne all called this place home. Garst Museum proudly displays their life history along with the history of the Native Americans that first settled this land.

The Gathering at Garst committee will strive to offer a quality show. The event will host artists, antique dealers, skilled craftsmen, entertainers, garden exhibits, and unique food vendors. These vendors will be located on the beautiful lawn behind the Garst Museum.

We also work in partnership with The Darke County Park District to host an outstanding Living History Encampment on adjoining park district land. It will welcome reenactors on Friday, Saturday and Sunday that accurately represent the Colonial and Revolutionary War period through the Civil War. Cannon firing demonstrations, skilled historic craftsmen, and carriage rides will entertain visitors.
